TETON COUNTY
MODEL UNITED NATIONS

Community Reception to Welcome Teton County Model UN Keynote Speaker

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
Kathleen Thomas

Kathleen's passion for promoting workers' rights first developed during her legal internships in Southwestern India. In 2012, Kathleen provided legal services to a women-run sex workers' collective in Pune and Mumbai, India. She also worked with the UN Special Rapporteur on the Right to Health. In 2013, she worked on interviewing, and documenting the violence against women and the LGBT community in post-earthquake Haiti. She co-authored a report to the United Nations (UN) Human Rights Committee, and also conducted UN High Commission of Refugees trainings to demystify complex human rights law to local women's rights group. Kathleen now works at Hofmann & Schweitzer fighting for New York and New Jersey workers who have suffered as a result of workplace violations and unsafe working conditions.

Ms. Thomas' lecture is titled, "Applying International Law: Ignore the Naysayers, It Really Works!" She will discuss and take questions about her experiences with, and the efficacy of International law, including here in the U.S.
